

PERCEPTION AND ACTION

Conference, June 24-25, 2011

Conference & Cultural Center of the University of Patras

Department of Philosophy, University of Patras

PROGRAM

Friday, June 24

16:45-17:00 Welcome address by the Head of the Philosophy Department, Assistant Professor Michael Paroussis.

17:00-17:45 John McDowell (University of Pittsburgh): "How receptive knowledge relates to practical knowledge"

17:45-18:15 Discussion

Discussant: Aristides Baltas (National Technical University of Athens)

Coffee break

18:45-19:15 Christos Douskos (University of Patras): "Habit and skill in perception"

19:15-19:35 Discussion

19:35-20:05 Athanassios Raftopoulos (University of Cyprus): "Event Files and Realism"

20:05-20:25 Discussion

Dinner

Saturday, June 25

10:00-10:30 Costas Pagondiotis (University of Patras): "On the Dependence of Perception on Action"

10:30-10:50 Discussion

10:50-11:20 Maria Venieri (University of Crete): "Enactive Perception and Phenomenal Consciousness"

11:20-11:40 Discussion

Coffee break

12:10-12:40 John Zeimbekis (University of Grenoble & CNRS): "Type demonstratives in perception and action"

12:40-13:00 Discussion

13:00-13:30 Evgenia Mylonaki (University of Pittsburgh): "Practical Knowledge and Perception"

13:30-13:50 Discussion

17:00-17:45 James Conant (University of Chicago): "Symmetries and Assymetries in Practical and Theoretical Reason"

17:45-18:15 Discussion

Coffee break

18:45-19:15 Voula Tsinorema (University of Crete): "How Value Colours Our Judgements. A Comment on McDowell's moral realism"

19:15-19:35 Discussion

19:35-20:05 Stelios Virvidakis (National & Kapodistrian University of Athens): "On the very idea of moral perception"

20:05-20:25 Discussion

Dinner
